UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

MOTION FOR EXTENSION

Michael Fitzgerald and Michael Goldstein, the undersigned Creditors, move this Court for relief and state:

1. Creditors have recently filed Proofs of Claim in this matter.
2. Creditors are filing pro se and are individuals, not corporations.
3. The Creditors were not included on the Debtor's Bankruptcy filing and therefore were not advised of the Debtor's attempt to discharge certain debts related to Limited Partnerships investing in real estate at 6112 Ridge Ave., 6210 Ridge Ave., 6212 Ridge Ave., and 6214 Ridge Ave. in the Roxborough neighborhood of Philadelphia, PA.
4. Creditors will be requesting an examination of representations made in Debtor's voluntary filing, under Federal Bankruptcy Code Rule 2004, in preparation for filing Adversary Proceedings relating to alleged fraud and embezzlement by Debtor in connection with the above-mentioned Limited Partnerships.
5. Creditors believe that similar Objections and Adversary Proceedings may be filed by one or more creditors who also invested in Limited Partnerships in Roxborough.
6. Creditors challenge Debtor's attempt to discharge certain debts relating to Roxborough real estate partnerships, bank loans, personal guarantees, and related matters.
7. Creditors have discussed with Debtor's attorney the scheduling of a Rule 2004 examination and are in the process of compiling a list of documents and testimony that will be requested.
8. Creditors need a minimum of 60 days to conduct their Rule 2004 examination.
9. Creditors anticipate that at the conclusion of the Rule 2004 examination an additional minimum period of 30 days will be required to prepare and file Adversary Proceedings.

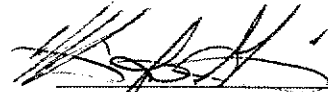

ACCORDINGLY, we respectfully request that the court grant a 60-day extension of proceedings and that no discharge of Debtor occur during this extension period.

Respectfully submitted,
